

EUROPEAN BARS INITIATE TWINNING PROJECTS

Lech Wałęsa, Maria Ślęzak, Zaza Khatashvili, Dariusz Sałajewski signing the twinning agreement between the Georgian Bar Association and the National Council of Legal Advisors in Poland

Lech Wałęsa and CCBE President Maria Ślęzak presided on 29 May to the signing of two twinning agreements between the Georgian Bar Association and the National Council of Legal Advisors in Poland, and between the Czech Bar Association and the Chamber of Advocates of the Republic of Armenia. These agreements are expected to speed up the integration of Central and Eastern European countries in the CCBE, reinforcing cooperation between national bars on issues of common interest.

‘I think that Western bars should promote rule of law and core values in Eastern Europe’ says Jędrzej Klatka, Head of the Polish Delegation to the CCBE. ‘I hope that my co-operation with the Georgian Bar will help it participate more actively in the work of the CCBE, for the benefit for all Georgian lawyers.’

Lech Wałęsa, Maria Ślęzak, Ara Zohrabyan, Antonín Mokry signing the twinning agreement between the Czech Bar Association and the Chamber of Advocates of the Republic of Armenia